

Part Time Spanish Teacher:

Description:

Common Ground is seeking a part time Spanish teacher who has experience teaching Spanish as a second language. Our target audience is primarily graduate level healthcare students. Hours per week are variable and flexible, but courses range in length from 8 - 15 weeks in length.

Requirements:

The Spanish teacher must have:

- Masters degree in a related field (Spanish, Education, or Healthcare)
- Ability to work independently
- Willingness to commute throughout the metro area for classes
- Interactive, energetic, and student - centered teaching style
- Ability to keep a flexible work schedule (some classes are in the morning hours, but many classes are in the late afternoon or early evening)

Responsibilities:

Spanish teachers work directly with Rory & Leslie Foster in establishing the syllabus and outlining course objectives, but teacher is responsible for the week to week details of the class (planning, grading if any, follow-up communication with students, etc.)

Other Details:

- Starting pay is $50 per class hour (planning, prep, and grading time not compensated additionally)
- Several opportunities for growth within the company

Qualified applicants are encouraged to submit a resume and cover letter to Leslie Foster: lfoster@commongroundinternational.com